Provided by the University of Virginia School of Medicine and School of Nursing.

Course Description:

Schwartz Center Rounds are interprofessional panel discussions that allow for health care providers to reflect and share about how they are affected by their work. The goal of the program is to foster and support empathy, collaboration and compassion for self and others.

Target Audience: Physicians, Nurses, APPs, Chaplains, Social Work, All Staff

Desired Outcomes:

At the conclusion of this session, participants will be able to:

- Describe the social, emotional, ethical, and personal issues that arise during the care of patients and their impact on caregivers.
- Demonstrate enhanced communication with patients, family members and colleagues.
- Value opportunities to explore and understand multiple perspectives across professions and disciplines.
- Value opportunities to provide and receive professional support.
- Model for learners behaviors of nonjudgmental listening and respect.

Accreditation & Designation Statements:

In support of improving patient care, the University of Virginia School of Medicine and School of Nursing is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

The University of Virginia School of Medicine and School of Nursing designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits.™ Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

The University of Virginia School of Medicine and School of Nursing awards 1.0 contact hour(s) for nurses who participate in this educational activity and complete the post activity evaluation.

The University of Virginia School of Medicine and School of Nursing awards 1.0 hours of participation (consistent with the designated number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™ or ANCC contact hours) to a participant who successfully completes this educational activity. The University of Virginia School of Medicine and School of Nursing maintains a record of participation for six (6) years.

As a Jointly Accredited Organization, The University of Virginia School of Medicine and School of Nursing is approved to offer social work continuing education by the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) Approved Continuing Education (ACE) program. Organizations, not individual courses, are approved under this program. State and provincial regulatory boards have the final authority to determine whether an individual course may be accepted for continuing education credit. The University of Virginia School of Medicine and School of Nursing maintains responsibility for this course. Social workers completing this course receive 1.0 continuing education credits.

This activity was planned by and for the healthcare team, and learners will receive (1) Interprofessional Continuing Education (IPCE) credit for learning and change.
