Course Description:

Schwartz Center Rounds are interprofessional panel-based discussions that allow for health care providers to reflect and share about how they are affected by their work. The goal of the program is to foster and support empathy, collaboration and compassion for self and others.

Target Audience: Physicians, Nurses, APPs, Chaplains, Social Work, All Staff

Desired Outcomes:

At the conclusion of this session, participants will be able to:

- Describe the social, emotional, ethical, and personal issues that arise during the care of patients and their impact on caregivers.
- Demonstrate enhanced communication with patients, family members and colleagues.
- Value opportunities to explore and understand multiple perspectives across professions and disciplines.
- Value opportunities to provide and receive professional support.
- Model for learners behaviors of nonjudgmental listening and respect.

Accreditation & Designation Statements:

In support of improving patient care, the University of Virginia School of Medicine and School of Nursing is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.
