Official Retirement Policy

A member of the administrative and professional faculty or other 12-month non-teaching faculty who wishes to retire should inform the immediate supervisor and responsible dean or other manager in writing as soon as possible in the year in which retirement is planned.

University of Virginia Policy HRM-004
http://uvapolicy.virginia.edu/policy/HRM-004
START TO FIGURE OUT WHAT YOU WANT

- How many years do you want to work?
- Do you want all those years to be full-time or do you want to consider part-time?
- Consider your preferred balance of patient care, research, education, administration, and/or service
- Begin talking with your Chair
  - This discussion is a negotiation
  - Consider department needs and ask for what you want
- Talk to HR about the financial implications (salary & benefits) of your preferred scenarios
- Discuss with financial advisor
- It can be helpful to include your partner in some meetings, if applicable/desired

DOES UVA HAVE A “PHASED” RETIREMENT PROCESS?

- Not formally, but you can negotiate a pre-retirement contract
  - Can work part-time typically for up to 2 years
  - But for no more than 2 years prior to agreed-upon retirement date
- Requires a written contract outlining work effort and timeline signed by faculty member & Dean, and approved by Provost
- Part-time work follows the UVA leave policy (“personal leave with partial pay”)
- Recommended minimum effort is 25% to prevent incurring costs with health plan coverage.
- Faculty remain eligible for all UVA benefits including health plan and continuation to pay only the employee premium
- Clinical faculty remain eligible for all UPG benefits
  - If hired before January 2017, should discuss possible implications to the UPG Clinicians Supplemental Retirement Plan (CSRIP)
WHAT KINDS OF CONVERSATIONS MAY I HAVE ABOUT RETIREMENT?

- You may discuss retirement with anyone you choose.
- Your department Chair, Dean, or Associate Dean may ask you about your future plans.
  - This helps them to plan for the department or school's needs.
  - Asking you about your plans does not mean that they are encouraging you to retire.
- Chairs are encouraged to talk with all faculty about retirement & the value of planning
  - Not selectively raising retirement with older faculty
  - Be aware of sensitivities (e.g., concerns of being "cut out")

WHO SHOULD I TALK TO?

- Director of Faculty Affairs, SOM (Dr. Salcedo)
- Medical and financial aspects of retirement
  - Discuss with both HR and UPG
- Your financial advisor
- School or departmental planning - Department Chair, Dean, or Associate Dean
- Provost's Office
- Other resources:
  - UVA Retired Faculty Association
  - UVA Faculty Retirement Guide
  - UVA Faculty Guide Program
How far in advance should I notify my Chair or Dean of my intent to retire?

- Factors to consider:
  - Urgency (e.g., medical issues)
  - Ongoing projects
  - Impact on school & department

- While the retirement process can be completed in 90 days if necessary, ~2 years is recommended.
Faculty members with clinical responsibilities who intend to resign or retire from their faculty appointment shall indicate their intention in writing to their department chair as soon as possible but at least six months prior to the date of their stated last date of employment.

Faculty or staff without clinical responsibilities who are planning to resign or retire shall give written notice of their intent to their supervisor as far in advance as reasonably possible but at least one month prior to their stated last date of employment.

Faculty Resignation and Retirement Notice - Policies and Guidelines (virginia.edu)

How do I notify my Chair of my intention to retire?

- Write a letter to your Chair, stating your intention to retire from your UVA faculty position and from the UVA Physicians Group (if applicable).
- State that your last day worked will be __________.
- The 24th of any given month works well for payroll purposes.

Individuals who hold primary appointments in the School of Medicine as faculty in the professorial ranks.
Any faculty member who intends to resign, retire, or transfer to another position within the University must provide that intent in writing, as described below. Any faculty member who would otherwise be eligible for a financial incentive will not be eligible for an incentive distribution if he or she is resigning or retiring and has not provided notice in accordance with this policy.

Faculty members with clinical responsibilities who intend to resign or retire from their faculty appointment shall indicate their intention in writing to their department chair as soon as possible but at least six months prior to the date of their stated last date of employment.

Access to Gift Accounts

Applies to:
Retired School of Medicine faculty members with gift accounts that are designated for support of his/her research or academic activities.

Policy Statement:
When a faculty member who has retired from the University of Virginia School of Medicine, wishes to continue research or academic activities, and has gift funds that are designated for support of his or her research, he or she may request the use of those funds as described in this policy.
Consistent with University policy, gifts are given to the institution and not to an individual faculty member. Departments are responsible for the oversight and management of these gifts. Any gift funds designated for a retired faculty member will remain in the department in which the faculty member had a primary appointment upon his or her retirement. The department chair will ensure that the funds are used according to the donor’s wishes. If the retired faculty member has a current non-salaried faculty appointment, he or she may request that the chair approve expenditure of the funds in support of his or her research, academic, or clinical activities that are in alignment with the donor’s intent. This decision is at the discretion of the chair and either the chair or the department administrator must approve all expenditures made on behalf of the retired faculty member’s activities.
Disposition of Institutional Support Balances Upon Faculty Resignation - Policies and Guidelines (virginia.edu)

Applies to:
Any faculty member in the School of Medicine ("SOM") who has a balance in his or her institutionally funded start-up or retention account and has announced his or her intention to leave the SOM, regardless of the reason.

Policy Statement:
A department will notify the dean's office when a faculty member announces his or her intention to leave the SOM. The dean's office will consider start-up or retention funds remaining in the departing faculty member's account as frozen from the date of notification, and these funds will revert to the dean's office unless approved for use as follows:
If the department chair wishes the faculty member to continue to have access to the start-up or retention funds, the chair will send the dean a plan that describes how the remaining funds will be used and how the expenditure will benefit the institution, including a justification for paying existing commitments against the account. The departing faculty member may not make an additional expenditure from the start-up account unless the chair receives the dean's written approval. The department is responsible for any unauthorized expenditure of residual faculty start-up funds.

If your team receives the grant or contract, you may be employed on a part-time (fewer than 20 hours/week) or non-salaried basis and hold the title senior research scholar.

You may be principal investigator (PI) on a grant with permission from your dean, provided the department chair reviews grant expenditures on a monthly basis.

You may continue to serve on departmental, school, or university committees, including as committee chair.

You may be appointed to new committees with the permission of the Dean.
LIMITATIONS ON WORKING AFTER RETIREMENT...

- A retired faculty member cannot be hired by any state entity including UVA in any capacity until at least thirty (30) days after retirement.
  - Different requirements pertain to employment with continuation of patient care services.
  - UPG is not considered a state entity.

- Under state regulations, the university is prohibited from making any verbal or written offer of reemployment to faculty members prior to their retirement.
  - If you are hired into a benefits-eligible position with a state entity, your retirement benefits end.
  - Rich Parella will explain "benefits eligible."

UVA FACULTY AND PROFESSIONAL RESEARCH STAFF (PRS)
DEPARTURE CHECKLIST

Revised October 2019

The following is a set of standardized checklists for faculty and professional research staff (PRS) members departing the University through the completion of a limited appointment, resignation, retirement, or termination.

Individuals assuming a new position at the University that will result in a significant change in responsibilities may also need to complete parts of the checklist.

Ideally, individuals and their chairs are reviewing these forms and beginning the completion process at least 90 days prior to the individual employee’s departure.

Faculty & PRS Departure Checklist (3 pages)
- This contains the departing individual’s basic information and forwarding address.
- This is where the individual will indicate which checklists apply to their responsibilities.
- Signatures on this sheet affirm that all steps are complete, including any necessary supplementary checklists.
- Please note the dates for completing checklist items. Some items are expected 90 days prior to departure.

THE BEST PLAN - MetLife

Life Insurance + Cash

- Include in your retirement planning financial planning determination of whether or not you need life insurance once retired, and if you do, how much.

REMEMBER – YOU ARE THE POLICY OWNER. This means you have to decide upon retirement from UPG:
- Do I want to keep the policy in place?
- Can I reduce the amount of life coverage?
- How can I best use the tax-free dollars accrued in the plan?
- YOU are responsible for paying the premiums.

If I keep the policy, how will I pay the premiums for desired coverage:
- Direct to MetLife
- From the Cash Value

If I surrender the policy:
- Cash value gets paid out to you automatically
- Possible tax implications (up to Cost Basis tax-free)
- 1035 Exchange to avoid taxes on amount over Cost Basis
- Work with financial advisor to set up.

Can I continue to provide patient care after retirement from UPG?
